

What power art thou

John Dryden (1631-1700)

Henry Purcell (1659-1695)

Sir George Alexander Macfarren (1813-1887)

Slow

6

What power art thou, who, from be-

11

low, Hast made me rise, unwillingly and slow, From Beds of e - ver-cresc. - - -

15

la - - sting Snow? See'st thou

f p

19

not how stiff, how stiff and wond'rous old, Far, far un - fit to bear the 23

bit - ter cold. I can scarce-ly move or draw my 27

breath, can scarce - ly move or draw my breath: Let me,

30

let me, let me freeze a - gain, let me, let me freeze a-gain to 33

death, let me, let me freeze again to death.